“Dania! Come here!” shouted the school bully to Dania. “What?” asked Dania. The girls were the same age, though Naya was a bit older. “What do you want from me, Naya?” asked Dania, walking to her with her books clutched to her Chest. “Do my homework!” commanded Naya, without saying please. “Uh, no! Do I look like a robot to you!” said Dania, shocked.

“What did you say to me?” asked Naya, sarcastically, as she pulled on Dania’s collar. “Dania, you do not speak to me like that, ok? I am almost thirteen and if you....” she continued.

“No! Stop! I will not and never do your homework, Naya!” shouted Dania, angrily, as she pushed Naya away. Naya was shocked. She had seen an upset, annoyed and angry Dania, but never a “rude” Dania.

Now, now Dania, be a good girl and ‘please’ do my homework.” asked Naya, politely.

“No! I wasn’t created to do other’s homework, Naya! Who do you think you are? Do your OWN homework! Go get some brains? Now go away!

Don’t you dare come and tell me to do your homework!” shouted back Dania, very rudely, throwing her book at her face.

Naya was shocked at how rude Dania was. Dania was never rude, like this...never! “DANIA! YOUR FATHER HAS ARRIVED!” called her teacher. “OK!”, she replied.

“Now Naya, I’m leaving, so don’t come to my house and ask me to do your homework!” said Dania. Dania and Naya were neighbours, which was very annoying to Dania.

“Had a good time?” asked her dad, as Dania entered the car. “Hm! Naya wanted me to do her homework as usual.” complained Dania. “And?” asked her dad. “I gave her a good telling off; she was scared stiff! I told her she should never ask me to do her homework again!” replied Dania.

“Dania? Why are you being so rude and angry? The Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said, “Do not get angry,” and he said this three times.

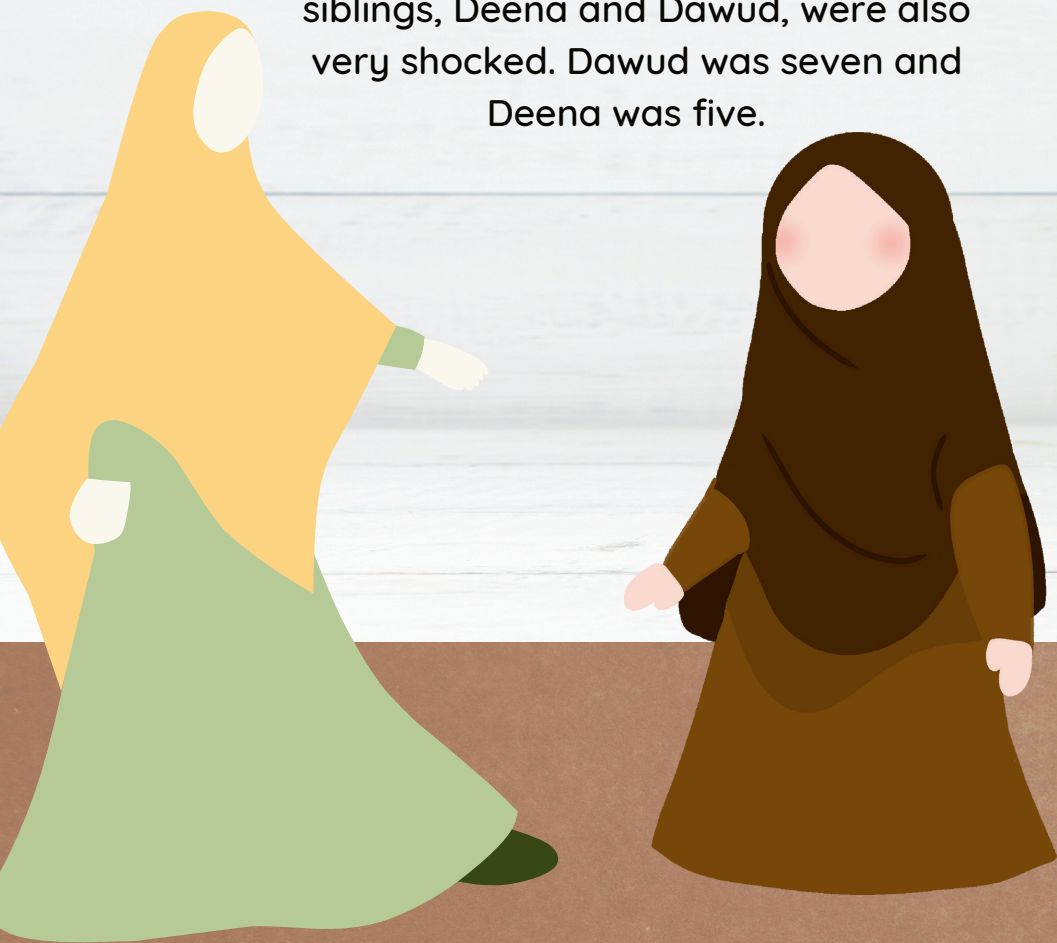

Dania that was not very polite of you. When we reach home, please apologise to her and repent to Allah.

“No!” said Dania, rejecting the good offer. “Dania! I have never seen you or heard you speak like this! I never knew you could be so fierce!” said her dad.

“Ugh. What a way to make my day better, Dad!” complained Dania. They reached home, and her Dad told her mom about Dania’s behaviour.

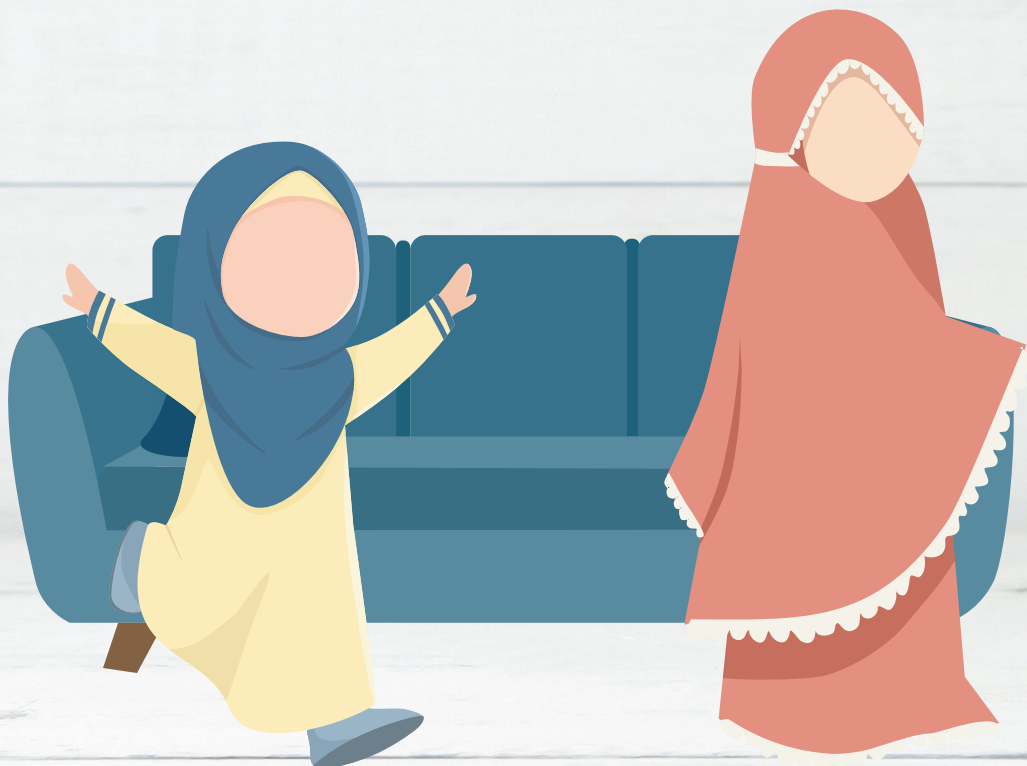

“Dania dear is everything ok with you?”, asked her mother patiently. “Ugh! Dad, why do you always make my day worse!” groaned Dania. Everyone was shocked at Dania’s behaviour that day. Her two siblings, Deena and Dawud, were also very shocked. Dawud was seven and Deena was five.

As soon as they had reached, Deena rushed to Dania for a hug, but Dania pushed her away and she landed on the sofa. Deena was very sad.

“Dania? Why are you being bad to Mama, Dad and Deena?” asked Dawud. “Get out, Dawud! Tell Mama I don’t want lunch. JUST GET OUT OF MY ROOM!” shouted Dania, angrily. “Whyyyy!” groaned Dawud, as he dragged himself towards the door.

Just then, Dania started to think, “Why am I being rude to my family, especially my dad, when it’s Naya who got me angry. No wait, I’ll go over to Naya’s house and help her out with her homework. I’ll be rewarded by Allah for this.”

In sha’a Allah after supper I will go to Naya’s house and apologise, explain to her and help her with her homework.” said Dania to herself. “Wait before that, I should repent to Allah, for Him to forgive me, I shouldn’t have been so rude to everyone!”

“Oh Allah, please forgive me for my terrible sins and how I shouted and was rude to Dawud and Naya. How I ignored Mama and Dad and was rude to them too! How I pushed away Deena when she just wanted to hug me.” prayed Dania. “Ugh, how awful I was, but only you O Allah At-Tawwaab will accept my repentance.”

After a long time of praying, Dania went down for tea. She apologised to everyone sincerely, hugged Deena and Dawud and played a game with them. They played until it was supper time.

“Dad! I’m just going to apologise to Naya and will be back for supper!” said Dania. “Ok!” called back her Dad.

Dania nervously left the house and knocked on Naya’s door. “Hello?” answered her mother. “Oh Dania! Naya said you were very rude to her and didn’t help her in homework.” Naya’s mother continued. “Yes, I know, I’ve come to apologise.” said Dania, solemnly but also nervously. “Ok, Jazaki Allah khair, but only for a short while because she’s very moody.” said Naya’s mother.

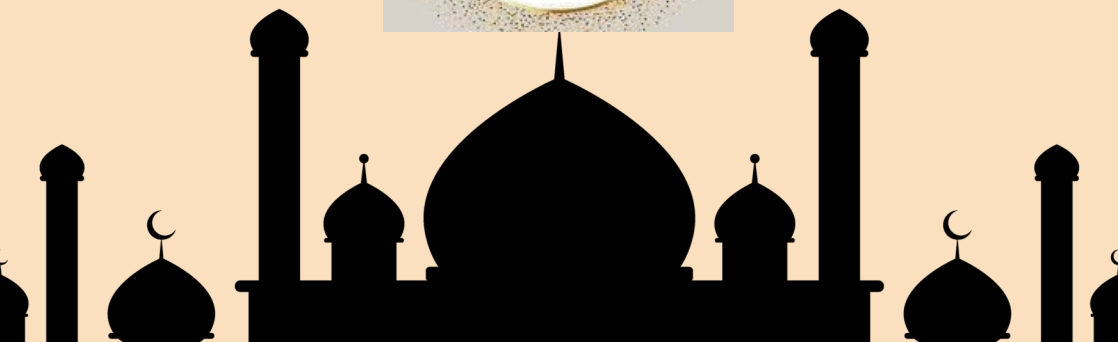

“NAYA! DANIA HAS COME TO APOLOGISE TO YOU,” called her mum. Dania felt nervous. She bit her lip and felt a sharp pain in her back. Oh the pain of being rude to Naya. The pain was so strong, as strong as her Dad’s black tea, she yelped and cried in pain.

She ran out of the house and tripped. She bruised her knee and her cheek turned red. She walked back to the house, clutching her cheek. “What’s wrong, dearie?” asked her Mum, as she came out of the kitchen with a tray of two black teas and three hot chocolates Oh c’mon! Don’t you know how much pain she’s in?” said her Mum, shocked. “Hmm. I wonder how much pain Naya would be in,” said her Dad, as he sighed

“See Dania, Allah At Tawwaab initiates the feelings of repentance. The pain that you are feeling is the guilt of doing wrong. When you feel this, its from Allah guiding you to repent and turn back to Him. Allah will then return to you by opening good deeds for you and He will exchange your sins to good deeds when you repent. When you apologised to us and your siblings, you were truthful to Allah in repenting, and Allah accepted your repentance by guiding you to be extra good to us.”

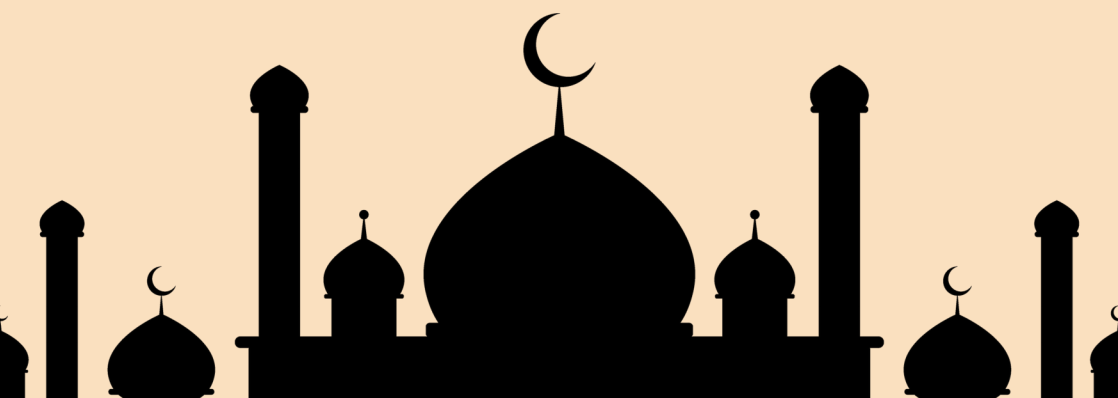

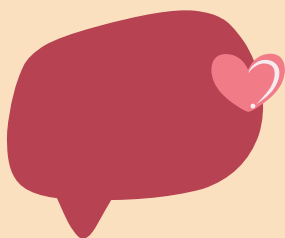

Now do you still feel that you should apologise to Naya truthfully? Have you truly repented to Allah? If yes, you will go back to her, and sincerely apologise to her,” her Dad continued. “Yes, I understand now, Jazkum Allah khair mama and dad,” said Dania, hugging her parents.

“Now I’m gonna go apologise to Naya.”

“Ok, bye,” her parents replied.

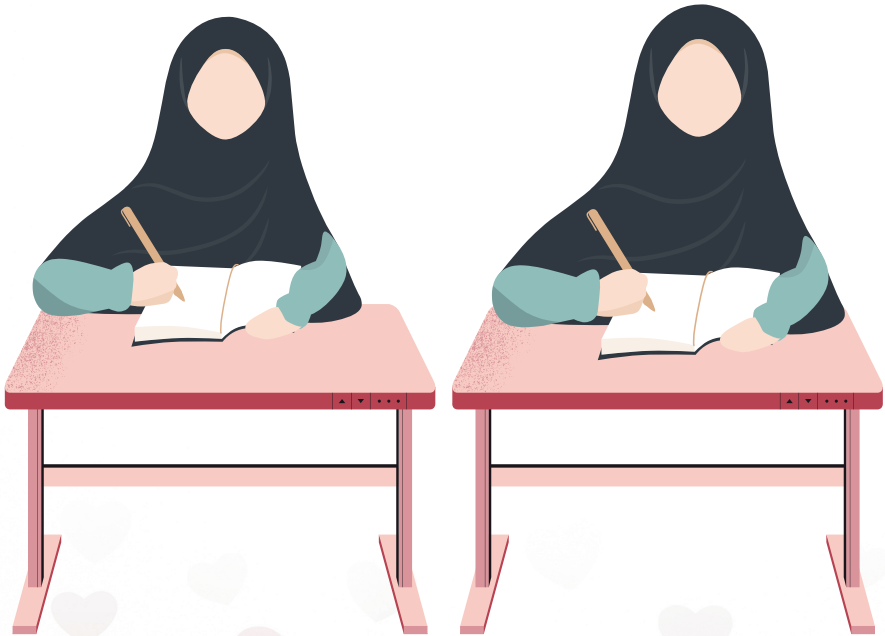

Soon she found herself standing in front of Naya's house. To her surprise, Naya opened the door. She gasped and immediately actioned to close the door again, but Dania stopped her and said, "Naya! Wait, I've come to apologise. Please, I'm sorry, I'm very very sorry for my rude behaviour in the morning, it was Shaitan who tricked me in the morning and made be rude to you, I'm sorry," said Dania. Naya found herself letting the door open. "I was also going to apologise for the bad things I have done in the past Dania," said Naya, breaking down into tears.

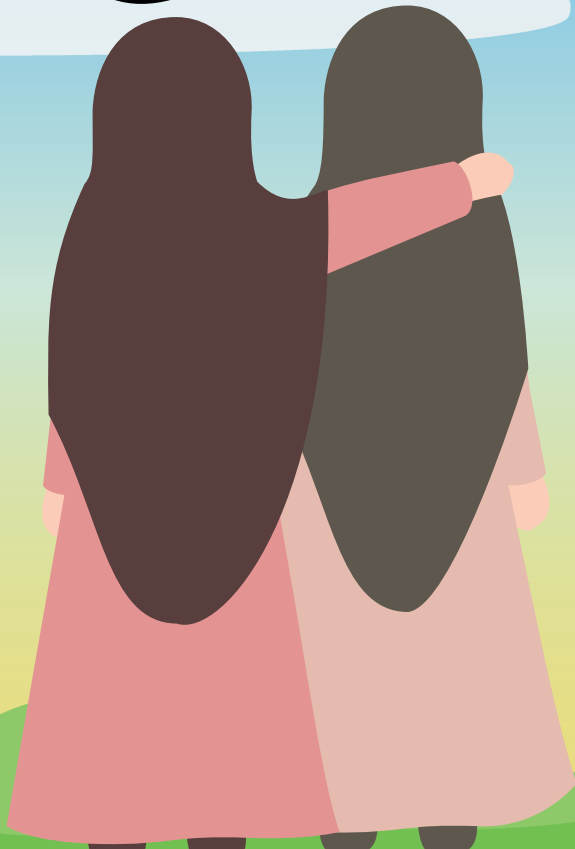

Dania told Naya about Allah
At Tawwaab and then she said, “how about we work on your homework?”

“Yes!”, they finished her homework and
